

STUDENT PORTFOLIO PLANS

Clint High School is an AVID school, where portfolios are required for all students. The AVID binders are meant to keep students organized and up to date on grades. The students place their notes, study guides, agenda, graded papers into their binders. They can see how their work is progressing, use their binders as study tools, and show how their study and organizational skills are improving through the semester/year.